Invoice and Payment Reminder Pack for New Freelancers

1. Invoice template

[Your name / business name]
[Address] | [Email] | [Phone]

INVOICE No. [0001]
Date: [DD/MM/YYYY]
Due: [Net 14 / Net 30 / due on receipt]

Bill to:
[Client name / company]
[Client address]

Description	Qty	Rate	Amount
[Service, one line each]	[1]	[$0.00]	[$0.00]
		Subtotal	[$0.00]
		Tax ([0]%)	[$0.00]
		Total due	[$0.00]

Payment: [Bank / PayPal / Stripe link]. Reference: Invoice No. [0001].
Terms: Payment due by [date]. Late payments may incur [X]% monthly interest.

Thank you for your business.

---

2. Payment reminder: 1 day after due date (friendly)

Subject: Invoice [0001] was due [date]

Hi [Name],

Quick note: invoice [0001] for [$amount] was due on [date]. Payment details are below in case it got buried.

[Payment link or bank details]

If it has already been sent, thank you. Reply and I will check.

[Your name]

---

3. Payment reminder: 7 days overdue (firm)

Subject: Invoice [0001] is now 7 days overdue

Hi [Name],

Invoice [0001] for [$amount] is 7 days overdue. Please pay by [date, 3 business days from now].

If there is a problem with the invoice or the work, tell me today so we can fix it.

[Your name]

---

4. Payment reminder: 21 days overdue (final)

Subject: Final notice: invoice [0001]

Hi [Name],

Invoice [0001] for [$amount] remains unpaid after 21 days. Unless payment or a payment plan is agreed by [date], I will pause new work and may apply the late fee in the terms.

[Your name]

---

5. Quick tips

- Send the invoice the same day the work is delivered.
- Require a deposit (30-50%) before starting new clients.
- Put the due date and late fee in the invoice, not just in an email.
- Send reminders on schedule. Silence after a late payment usually means you are not following up, not that the client is refusing.
- Keep a simple sheet: invoice number, amount, due date, paid date.